

Reserve your seat today for:

“Arrest Records as Barriers to Employment”

A Midwest summit for attorneys, policy makers, workforce development and employment agencies, human resource personnel, business groups, community organizations, community leaders and residents

featuring keynote speaker

Chai Feldblum, Commissioner
U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission with panel presentations on:

- Revised EEOC guidelines for employers in considering arrest histories in hiring decisions
- Impact on juveniles and adults seeking jobs—especially in vulnerable communities with high arrest rates
- Current legal action involving major employers and the EEOC guidance
- Remedies and implications
- Research findings on guidance application and its mental health impact in Chicago’s Englewood community

▶ Monday, October 28

Registration and Refreshments: Noon - 1 p.m. | Program: 1 - 4 p.m.

James R. Thompson Center, 100 W. Randolph, Chicago | Assembly Hall (Concourse Level)

Free and open to all | RSVP required by October 21 at adler.edu/ISEPrograms

For groups of 10 or more, please contact ISE@adler.edu

Hosted by the Adler School of Professional Psychology Institute on Social Exclusion in collaboration with co-sponsors:

Cabrini Green Legal Aid
Chicago Area Project
Chicago CeaseFire
Chicago Commission on Human Relations
Chicago Department of Public Health
Chicago Department of Family and Support Services
Chicago Jobs Council
Chicagoland Chamber of Commerce
Children and Family Justice Center
Cook County Board/President Toni Preckwinkle
Field Foundation of Illinois
FORCE/Community Renewal Society
Illinois Department of Corrections
Illinois Department of Human Rights

Illinois Department of Employment Security
Illinois Department of Juvenile Justice
Legal Assistance Foundation of Metropolitan Chicago
LISC Chicago
Metropolis Strategies
Pierce Family Foundation
Robert Wood Johnson Foundation
Safer Foundation
Shriver Poverty Law Center
TASC (Treatment Alternatives for Safe Communities)
Teamwork Englewood
Union League Club of Chicago
W. K. Kellogg Foundation

ADLER SCHOOL

Institute on Social Exclusion